ALL SORTS.

Southern California girls seem to wear striped stockings. They go barefooted.

A writer in the English Mechanic suggests the use of a dew point thermometer as a means of determining whether a house is sufficiently free from moisture to be inhabitable.

Anna Dickinson's four stage dresses cost $9,000 in cash. If she fails as an actress it will take her about eighty-seven years, working at $2 per week, to pay for the dresses alone.

In rifling a house at Auburn, two burglars finding a set of dominoes, coolly sat down and had a game, marking their points on a piece of paper, which was about the only movable thing they left.

When a California woman defeated a lion in a hand-to-hand combat, the neighbors were greatly astonished, but her husband quietly remarked, "Oh, that's nothing; that woman could lick the devil."

Le Petit Journal of Paris says that Mr. Stewart, the richest American "industrial" should have left to the Luxembourg Museum the picture by Meissonier, which he bought last year for 300,000 francs.

The rice paper plant of China, with palmate leaves is being cultivated as a door yard adornment in the warm parts of this country. It is from the pith of this plant that the Chinese make a sort of drawing paper.

Fond mamma about to get into her carriage to small boy in the house door: "Now, Freddie, are you not going to kiss me?" "I haven't time to come down, mama.—(To footman) John, you kiss mama for me."

Somebody asked a young lady the other evening if she didn't think the social literature of the country was at its best just now. She said she did, decidedly, there were the loveliest patterns in Harper's Bazar she had ever seen.

When Charlotte Cushman played "Meg Merrilies" in a Southern city, many years ago, she was horror-struck in the last act at beholding two veritable little darkies led on the stage as her children. The audience did not manifest emotions either of derision or displeasure.

When the Hon. S. M. Cox was looking at the great Corliss engine at the Centennial, last week, he asked the guard standing near what horse power the engine had. The reply came, with an amused look: "Why, you'd a fool you! It don't run by horses, they're steam!"

Two young ladies in the library were discussing a preference expressed by one of them for clean shaven men, when the other was heard to remark: "I don't object to a man with a reasonable quantity of hair on his face, but I wouldn't like to marry a buffalo robe."

Mrs. Gilup of Davenport remarked to a neighbor the other day: "My husband is the hardest man to reason with that ever lived. I had to smash up my china teapot and throw a milk pitcher through the looking glass before I could make him promise to take me to the Centennial."

Mrs. Dippus (to Jonesy, who is deeply in arrears for board): "Mr. Jones won't you step into the parlor for a moment? I wish to speak with you." Jonesy: "Really, Mrs. Dippus, I should like to accommodate you, but what will the boarders say to seeing us alone? Oh, no, excuse me."

The second night after her first husband died, she sat by the open chamber window three hours waiting for the cats to begin fighting in the back yard. She said: "This thing of going to sleep without a quarrel of some kind is so new that I can't stand it! Let me alone till they begin, then I can doze off gently."

In a horse car, the other day, an old lady seated opposite a sharp-looking gentleman kept her eyes on him a long time, and finally asked, "Mr. are you a pickpocket?" "Why, no, madam. I'm a tradesman," he answered. "Is that so?" she sighed. "Well I'm awfully disappointed. I wanted to try and see if I could reform you."

At one time Daniel Webster had a difficult case to plead, and a verdict was returned against his client. One of the witnesses came to him and said, "Mr. Webster, if I had thought we should have lost this case, I might have testified a good deal more than I did." "It is of no consequence," replied the lawyer, "the jury did not believe a word you said."

The popular belief that china clay is principally used for the manufacture of porcelain is erroneous. Large quantities are employed by bleachers for filling up the pores of calicoes as a dressing, still more by paper makers to give body and weight to their paper, and it is moreover used for many other manufacturing and chemical purposes, including the adulteration of flour.

Spring Love Making.

Oh! the soft sweet language of love! It's oft in the stilly night we hear its gentle murmur.

"Dost think spring hast come, Henri?"

"Yes, dearest Constina, I feel that I may assure you that this warmthness will be no more dispelled by the wind. But why so strange a question?"

"Because I fain would clothe my nether extremities in silken covering, were I assured the continuance of the present balminess. To thee, who art so good and wise, your Constina looks for counsel in all things affecting her health and happiness."

"Believe me thou, they are dear to me sweet one, and I am proud that thou shouldst deem me worthy to advise thee in a matter of so grave import. I am confident thou hast naught to fear in making the change thou desirest. To prove the strength of my conviction, I have to inform you that only yesterday night I laid aside my flannel."

"Oh, Henri!" she gasped, clinging convulsively to him, "was it not premature? Should fever assail me. What if thou shouldst take cold and die! Oh, me prolonged me ah."

"Calm thyself, me angel. There is no danger. All will be well."

"I shall hope for the best, Henri, and pray nightly that no rude blast shall return to chill thy frame and place in jeopardy thy precious life. What would striped stockings be to Constina if thou wert gone? a hollow mockery, a stiffless fabric."

Then they clinched, and we left.

A Mammoth Tree for the Centennial.

The largest tree standing in the United States is on the head of Bear creek, North Fork of Tule river. The exact dimensions of this immense red wood giant we do not remember, but believe it is something over 40 feet in diameter. A San Francisco party have made arrangements to represent this monster at the Centennial, and have given the contract to a Tulare man Mr. J. C. Crasser, to remove the bark with eight inches of the wood from the surface of the tree, [illegible] or stripped rather, like staves of a barrel, without felling the tree. These pieces are to be cut 40 feet long, [illegible] put together in Philadelphia [illegible] twenty feet [illegible] rooms cabinets of California [illegible] and curiosities will be [illegible] arranged.

WHAT THE WORLD WANTS

A NEW INVENTION, WHICH SPECIALLY supplies the wants of the Pacific States, has just been perfected and shaped into a regular WELL-BORING AND PROSPECTING AUGUR. It is constructed on purely scientific principles, and its perfect simplicity of formation well adapts it to all kinds of well-boring and mining purposes. By its use the expense of obtaining water throughout the dry portions of the country, in surface or artesian wells, will be greatly reduced, and for prospecting for minerals it will necessarily supercede all other machines now in use.
This simple and practical machine can now be seen at work and thoroughly examined at Oakland Point Planing Mills. One-third interest in this valuable Patent is for sale.

No. 509 Kearny Street,

N. B.—On the 19th day of April, 1876, at which time we were satisfied that the above invention was perfected, we invited a well-known scientific gentleman of San Francisco to examine it, and on the following day this same gentleman, who has been a Professor of Science of the University of Edenburg, and of other prominent Colleges at the East, in our own country, voluntarily sent us the following letter to which we are pleased to refer:

No. 120 SUTTER ST., SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., April 20th, 1876.
MESSRS. PRICE & MORGAN—Dear Sirs: Having at your request examined and practically tested your machine, I take great pleasure in bearing testimony to its value for well-boring. Such a result could only be obtained from mature experience of the desiderata requisite, coupled with mechanical skill, to devise such appliances so novel as the extension bit and cored augur, worked by a powerful screw, by which the entire system of well boring is changed, facilitated and cheapened, and by the soil or debris being brought directly to the surface without uncoupling, or any disturbance of the screwing or boxing shaft. The operation is made so certain as to leave no question of the great benefits which will speedily accrue to this State from its introduction.
Trusting for you a rich pecuniary success, I remain, gentlemen, yours truly,
WELWOOD MURRAY.

THIS COMPANY IS ORGANIZED for three main purposes. First—The purchase and improvement of 220 acres of land near the State University. Our Sick Poor.

The sick boy in the police quarters—a stranger and penniless—has grown worse and is suffering considerably. There is but little in the way of proper care and nourishment he can receive at the city hall, and there is no room in the County Hospital to admit him. Some steps should be taken by the proper authorities to enlarge the accommodations at the County Hospital, for the warm season is here and we shall have an increase of indigent sick on our hands, and possibly a number of small pox patients with no place for their reception and cure. Paul Pauffy was in the city hall very ill with conjestive chills for several days, and applied in vain for admission to the County Hospital, and as it was impossible to procure the requisite provision and attention in the police quarters, he mustered strength and walked off to try to find better accommodations or may be to die away from the habitations of benevolent man.

NOTICE.

Grand Temperance Meeting!

To the Residents of the City of Oakland

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN AT THIS time we deem it necessary, from the continual growth of intoxication in our young and flourishing city, to use some means to check the evil that is growing so rapidly upon us; and consequently have determined to unite ourselves in one grand body, irrespective of creed or nationality, under the glorious banner of Temperance. We earnestly invite all who wish to assist in this good work to meet, on Sunday next, May 28th, at 4 o'clock P. M., at the Hall of the Academy of Music, Sixth street, near Broadway, for the purpose of organizing a Total Abstinance Society in honor of the great apostle of temperance, Rev. Theobald Mathew; and when we adopt the name of Father Mathew, there is no doubt but we will be crowned with success. On this occasion there will be some excellent speakers, among whom are Frank Conkling, Esq., ex-President Father Mathew Society No. 1, of San Francisco; Zachariah Montgomery, Esq., and Mr. J. W. Moss. The celebrated Father Mathew Brass Band will discourse some excellent music.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

Platform and Resolutions—Delegates to the National Convention—State Central Committee—Congressional Nominations.

The second day's session of the Convention was delayed in opening on account of the occupation of the hall by the Fourth Congressional District Convention, which got into a wrangle about the nomination of the national delegates from that district. When the Convention was called to order and a collection had been taken up, ex-Senator Hager, from the Committee, stepped upon the stand and read the following:

PLATFORM AND RESOLUTIONS:

1. Fidelity to all the provisions of the Constitution of the United States.

2. A perpetual union of the States, with local self-government in every section.

3. Civil service reform; a restitution of the tests of honesty, fidelity and capacity in the qualifications of public officers.

4. Retrenchment and economy in Federal, State and municipal administration, lessening the burdens on labor by the reduction of offices and taxation.

5. Exposure and a speedy punishment by penal laws, of corruption and peculation in the administration of public affairs.

6. The private use and appropriation of public funds by official custodians means embezzlement and robbery. Official accountability exacted and enforced by the better administration of civil and criminal laws.

7. State corporations supervisable by and subordinate to State legislation, in the interests of the people.

8. Free schools, exempt from all sectarian control. A free press, accountable for abuses to civil and criminal laws.

9. Preservation of public faith and credit, and the honest payment of the public debt.

10. The money of the Constitution, gold and silver, the only legal tender.

11. A tariff for purposes of revenue only.

12. No Chinese immigration. It is thoroughly obnoxious to our people and institutions; its prohibition is imperatively demanded, and all the powers of the Government should be exerted to that end.

Judge Hager also offered the following, which was adopted, 257 to 96:

Resolved, That the majority of our delegates to the National Convention cast the vote of this State as a unit.

Mr. Lewis of Tehama, presented the following preamble and resolution as an addition to the platform and resolutions:

WHEREAS, The Hon. Samuel J. Tilden, Governor of the State of New York, by his manly defense of the people against the corrupt schemes of political tricksters, has pointed him out as the true reformer and fit champion of the people in the conflict with official corruption, and by his bold advocacy of hard money as the circulating medium of our country, has made himself an unobjectionable leader of the Democratic party; therefore be it

Resolved, That his nomination as President of the United States by the National Democratic Convention would be acceptable to the Democratic party of California as a glorious victory in the cause of honest government.

After much debate, and under a suspension of the rules, the preamble and resolution were adopted by acclamation.

The following named gentlemen were elected as the

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE:

First District, C. H. Johnson; Second, M. R. T. Bulliam; Third, Joseph F. Black; Fourth, R. J. Tobin; Fifth, J. D. Spencer; Sixth, W. B. C. Brown; Seventh, J. G. Wolfskill; Eighth, P. H. Ryan; Ninth, W. J. Tinnin; Tenth, John, Boggs; Eleventh, J. W. Surface; Twelfth; John C. Maynard; Thirteenth, A. H. Glasscock; Fourteenth, A. B. Dibblee; Fifteenth, Paul Shirley; Sixteenth, J. W. Freman; Seventeenth, W. Woodworth; Eighteenth, Thos. P. Slade; Nineteenth, A. Neuman; Twentieth, A. Worthen; Twenty-first J. R. Wyatt; Twenty-second, A. P. Overton. The Chair appointed as the members at large, Peter Donahue, J. N. Beard, A. F. Williams, S. Sharp and P. M. O'Connor.

DELEGATES TO THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The following named delegates to the National Convention at St. Louis, selected by the respective Congressional District Delegations, were presented to and endorsed by the Convention:

First Congressional District, William Dunphy and George H. Rodgers of San Francisco.

Second Congressional District, John C. Hayes, of Alameda, T. W. Baldwin, of Stockton.

Third Congressional District, Armand Bay, of Butte county, and George F. Cornwall, of Napa.

Fourth Congressional District, Judge Moultrie of Santa Clara and C. D. Mott of Los Angeles.

THE DELEGATES AT LARGE.

Mr. Burnett, of San Francisco, put in nomination Judge John S. Hager and Colonel J. P. Hoge.

Mr. Lewis of Tehama, presented the name of Clay W. Taylor of Shasta, and proclaimed him an honest-government, hard-money Democrat.

Colonel Stuart M. Taylor, of Nevada City, seconded the nomination of Colonel Hoge.

Judge Pennie nominated John G. Downey.

Mr. L. Quint supported the nomination of Colonel Hoge.

Mr. Brown, of Sacramento, nominating James L. English, of Sacramento.

Mr. O'Connor proposed ex-Senator Casserly.

Addresses by way of endorsement were made by A. H. Rose in favor of Hager; Tinnin, in favor of Taylor; Murphy of Del Norte, in support of Casserly; Farley, commendatory of all the candidates; T. P. Ryan and Mayor Bryant, in favor of Casserly; and Mr. Burch in support of Hager.

Senator Hager was asked the question direct whether he was in favor or would vote for the nomination of Tilden, and answered that he would not pledge himself to any man.

A vote was then taken on the nominations at large, with the following result:

Hoge, 282; English, 267; Taylor, 237; Hager, 250; Casserly, 239; and Downey, 129.

The President thereupon declared Messrs. Hoge, English, Taylor and Hager elected delegates at large to the National Democratic Convention.

On motion of Mr. Lewis a majority of the delegates to the National Convention was empowered to cast the vote of any absentee.

The Convention then adjourned to meet on the last Wednesday in July at Union Hall.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTIONS.

The San Francisco delegation, representing the First Congressional District, met in convention yesterday morning and nominated Congressman William A. Piper by acclamation, Mr. McDonald's name not being presented.

The Second Congressional District Convention, to nominate a successor to Page, adjourned to meet in Sacramento on the 20th of September next.

The Third District Convention, to nominate a successor to Luttrell, adjourned to meet at the same time and place as the State Convention to select Presidential Electors.

The delegates from the Fourth (Wigginton's) Congressional District met in Union Hall after the adjournment of the State Convention. A motion was made to postpone the nomination of Congressman until the reassembling of the State Convention in July, which on roll-call was lost by fourteen votes. Mayor B. B. Murphy, of San Jose, the only candidate in the field against Congressman P. D. Wigginton, seeing that a further struggle would result in ill-feeling between his friends and those of Mr. Wigginton, stepped into the Convention with a proxy, and in an eloquent and manly speech gracefully withdrew from the contest and placed in nomination the name of Mr. Wigginton. The nomination was made by acclamation, amid the wildest enthusiasm, culminating in three times three for the "Little Giant of San Jose."

THREE MEN DROWNED.

They Become Exhausted Clinging to a Capsized Boat and Drop off one by one.

On Wednesday afternoon Charles H. Bolan, E. L. Smith, Frank Higgins and William F. Sherwin, employes in the Cornell Watch Factory, chartered a small sailboat and went out about three miles from the Berkeley landing fishing. The wind was blowing very fresh, and at about 2 o'clock the

BOAT WAS UPSET

By a sudden gust and the four men precipitated into the water. They all managed to get hold of the boat, but were unable to retain their hold, and dropped off one by one until Sherwin was left clinging to the capsized craft alone. Smith was the last to drop off, saying that he could hold out no longer, and might as well go down there as anywhere. In

HIS EFFORTS TO SAVE SMITH.

Sherwin tore the shirt off his back. At about 5 o'clock Sherwin signaled the steamer Mare Island, which was passing about two miles from him. He was not seen, however, owing to the roughness of the water, and the steamer passed on without answering his signals. He

And the sad occurrence has thrown a gloom over the whole town. The terrible experience through which Sherwin passed in seeing his comrades drop from the boat and disappear, one after another, has had such an effect on his nerves that he is scarcely able to tell his story without giving away.

Laurel Hall Commencement.

The class of '76 at Laurel Hall, San Mateo, consisting of six pupils, graduated Wednesday with usual eclat. A large number of friends of pupils and the school were in attendance.

The graduates were the Misses Keley, of Carson, McLean of San Mateo, Naffziger of Nevada City, Hoynes of Humboldt, Bragg of Boca and Clara E. Goodrich of Bakersfield. The class acquitted themselves well and showed great proficiency.

Mr. Church read a letter from Miss Buckmaster, the Principal—who is ill in Vermont—in which she takes an affectionate leave of her class. She warned them to regard their diplomas merely as an introduction to their life's work, recommending charity to the rich and humility and industry to the poor. She advised those who are obliged to earn their living to be satisfied with being good cooks or chambermaids, rather than to contract a bad marriage or fail in a profession, the principle that any calling is honorable being one of the tenets of the institution. As a body the class—and, indeed, the whole school—appeared to advantage. The toilets were tastefully simple, the pupils being almost without jewelry.

Fire Company at Temescal.

The citizens of Temescal met on Wednesday evening to organize a hook and ladder company. M. F. Cavanaugh was called to the chair, and Charles Pinkham was elected Secretary. The object of the meeting met with general support, and the company was organized as follows: Foreman, John Collard; First Assistant, Charles Pinkham; Secretary, Charles Huber; Treasurer, George Pinkham, Sen. The following were elected a Financial Committee: P. Swards, G. Pinkham, G. Rickard and J. Hall. The meeting adjourned until the evening of May 31st. The Company is to be known as the Temescal Hook Ladder and Bucket Company.

Twelfth vs. Ninth Street.

Captain Demming is about erecting a large three-story brick block on the northeast corner of Twelfth and Washington streets, the lower story to be arranged for a number of first-class stores fronting on one or the other of the streets named. The building will be 60x80 feet square, and will be constructed of pressed brick and freer stone. This will complete a business row through from Broadway to Washington, thus bringing Twelfth street into competition with Ninth for the spread of trade from over-crowded Broadway. It now looks as if Washington was to become a second Broadway for business.

In accordance with the views entertained by Dr. Woolsey, who made an autopsy, the jury under Coroner Helmer returned a verdict of "death from consumption."

THE MUSTANGS.

Peralta Wins the Great Race Against Time—15,000 People Present—Scenes and Incidents.

The second great mustang race at Fleetwood Park took place yesterday. The Mexican, Peralta, started at 12 o'clock in the attempt to ride 155 miles in seven hours. Peralta showed himself to be an excellent horseman. At the start the attendance was limited, and it was not till nearly 3 o'clock that crowds began arriving. At that time the road leading to the race-course was filled with carriages and pedestrians. Every train from the city arrived with loads of passengers. Fully one hundred thousand people were on the track during the latter part of the race. Peralta changed horses about every second mile, and it was evident from the start that he did not intend to lose any more time than was possible from this cause. Parker, in his recent attempt, changed horses every mile, losing considerable time, besides overexerting himself. The track was in splendid condition and the weather beautiful. Peralta was also in good trim, and under the advice of Dr. Stanley took no nourishment except milk and water. He also changed his cap frequently, keeping it moist to keep his head cool. He rode mostly around the course to the left, changing about every ten miles to the right, but would only ride a mile or two in the latter direction, when he would change again to his favorite course. The first mile was made in 2:22¼, and then taking a fresh horse he made the second mile is 2:22. The first 10 miles were made in 24 minutes 14¼ seconds, and during this run he used six mustangs. The sixth horse proved a vicious beast and balked. It seemed as though Peralta must be thrown, but with the agility of a cat he threw his body forward, righted himself in the saddle and forced the mustang into a run. Parker attended to saddling the horses, and John Francis, the California rancher, attended to the relays at the stand. After completing the sixteenth mile Peralta threw aside the blue cap he wore, as the colors commenced to run. It was feared that some chemicals used in the coloration might injure his eyes. It is the impression that Parker's sudden blindness in the late race was caused by a mishap of this kind. The nineteenth mile was made in 2:14¾—the fastest mile made up to that time. The actual time of the first 20 miles was 49 minutes, 15 seconds, but including the delay in mounting he made it in 53 minutes 45 seconds. He was then 30 seconds ahead of time. On completing his twenty-sixth mile he took his quarter refreshment, a glass of milk, and was greeted with tremendous cheers. The first 30 miles were made in 1 hour 18 minutes, being 3 minutes 12 seconds inside of his time allowance. On the 36th miles the most stubborn horse yet used was mounted. He bolted near the stables and carried the rider down the bank, among the trees and bushes, and out of sight. He fiercely endeavored to throw Peralta, but he hung on manfully, and with the aid of the Mexican attendants, and negroes with brush whips and yells, he got the loose horse on the track, and then, under whip and spur, he whirled again around the track. The first forty miles were made in 1 hour 46 minutes 30 seconds, and 50 miles in two hours 13 minutes 15 seconds. Thus far, 28 fresh horses have been used. Peralta, during each ten miles, drank a glass of milk, showed no signs of fatigue, and rode well. After the 51st mile Peralta entered the Judges' stand, where he was rubbed by Dr. Stanley, took a drink of milk, again changed his cap, vaulted lightly into the saddle, and started on the 29th relay horse. The betting had been light and about even. In the pools the betting was 40 to 25 against the feat being accomplished. The 60 miles were made in two hours 42 minutes 45 seconds. He was then 11 seconds behind time, including all the interruptions. Much time was lost by the horses frequently bolting. Up to this time 33 horses had been used. On the 61st mile the horse bolted straight through the rail fence in front of the stable, but Peralta kept the saddle. The frequent losses of time now began to tell, and sporting men who had backed the rider began to hedge. At 3 P. M., having made 66½ miles, Peralta was exactly on time, and riding well the 64th mile—made in the fast time of 2:20—Peralta looked and acted fresh as at the start. The first 70 miles were made in 3 hours 4 minutes and 33¼ seconds. He had used 38 fresh horses, was riding splendidly and the horses were less fractious. The last mile was made in 2:17¼. On the 76th mile he changed horses and reversed the direction, and when he accomplished 77½ miles—just half the distance—he was 15 seconds behind the stipulated time. The next 10 miles, including the 80th, was made in 25 minutes 33½ seconds. At 4 o'clock he was 22 seconds behind, having made 88½ miles. The next 10 miles, including the 90th, was made in 25 minutes and 20 seconds. At 4:31 P. M. he concluded 100 miles, 2 seconds behind time. The crowd at this time was immense and enthusiastic. The next 10 miles, to the 110th inclusive, he made in 25 minutes 2½ seconds, and at 5 o'clock he was 7 seconds ahead of time, riding splendidly.

The actual running time of the 100 miles was 4 hours, 9 minutes and 40 seconds, including interruptions, 4 hours and 31 minutes. The time lost by bolting horses was 21 minutes and 14¼ seconds. At 25 minutes past 5 o'clock Peralta completed 120 miles, and was 9¼ seconds ahead. At 6 o'clock he was 8 seconds ahead., and at 6:19½ he completed his 140th mile. The best horses were kept to finish. On the 147th mile a negro attendant got in the way and was knocked down, the mustang going over him. The 150th mile wes completed at 6:45¼, and he finished the race at 6:58, completing the 155 miles with two minutes to spare. The last mile was rode in 2:25. He rode 88 horses during the race. His victory was greeted with tremendous cheering by 15,000 spectators. During the last ten miles, the betting, which had been $50 to $40 on time, now changed to $100 to $80 on Peralta. He rode well to the finish. His accomplishment of the feat was unexpected.

After the race Peralta was given stimulants. After resting a few moments he walked to his quarters, leaning on the arm of one of his comrades, when another followed behind playing a Mexican air on an old cracked flute, occasionally stopping to give vent to his feelings in a cheer. Parker is to attempt the ride of 305 miles in fifteen hours next Thursday. David Stanton, champion bicycle rider of England, has sent a challange to ride 100 miles against Peralta with mustangs for 160 miles, for from $100 to $200 a side.

"NON NOBIS SOLUM."

Commencement Exercises at Mrs. Poston's Seminary—A Large and Appreciative Attendance.

Many were the friends and acquaintances of the graduating students of Mrs. Poston's seminary that assembled there last evening to witness the commencement exercises, so many were there that the spacious rooms were uncomfortably crowded. The parlors were tastily decorated with evergreens and garlands, the Centennial dates—1776 and 1876—were prominently displayed, and in a semi-circle above in letters of evergreen was the Latin phrase—Non Nobis Solum, which in English means

"NOT MERELY TO OURSELVES,"

Stood out conspicuously as the motto of the school. Rev. Dr. Eells opened the exercises with a short but quite appropriate prayer. The programme was of a varied nature, well selected, and much better rendered, as the frequent demonstrations of high appreciation testified. The essay of Miss Grant—"There are no Pyrenees," was full of deep and lofty thoughts, with beautiful and weird variations, arranged and put forth with much tact and taste. Miss Buckelew, of Marysville, read an essay that was well worthy of an older and more experienced author. The disquisition on the word

"WHY,"

Also by Miss Buckelew, was a pleasing and beautiful production, witty and pure in style, yet full of well contended assertions, and all so systematic in sequence that one must esteem Miss Buckelew quite a logician. Miss Dean, also of Marysville, did well with her essay on "Every Day." The subject of "To thine own self be true" was well elucidated by Miss Quigley, of San Francisco; her valedictory address was an admirable production, couched in language that was so dignified and affectionate, that it tended to preserve the remembrance of this occasion in the minds of the separating graduates. Miss Whitmore, of Weaverville, read a fine essay on "Battlefields." The vocal and instrumental

MUSICAL RECITATIONS

Were all well delivered, and in some instances gave evidence of considerable culture and talent; they were participated in by the Misses Mills, Smith, Blasdel, Tritle, McMartin, Warbass, Whitmore, Filkins, Bragg, Thomas, and the entire school in concert. After the delivery of the valedictory Rev. Dr. Eells presented diplomas to the following named members of the

GRADUATING CLASS:

Misses Dean and Buckalew, of Marysville, Miss Whitmore, of Weaverville, Miss Grant, of Oakland, and Miss Quigley, of San Francisco. Mrs. Poston may well feel proud of the very complimentary showing her scholars have made. The school is in an exceedingly prosperous condition and now has about seventy-five students.

Clinton Lodge, I. O. G. T.

Small-Pox.

The dreaded smallpox is still increasing—twelve cases in all having made their appearance. Two cases were reported on Wednesday on Brannan street, between Sixth and Seventh streets, which houses were quarantined. Two cases were reported yesterday, one being on Clay street near the plaza, in a Chinese lodging-house. On Wednesday night a Swede residing near Washington and Leavenworth street died of the disease and the body was removed yesterday.

A "Bad Crowd."

One of the women who were witnesses in the cases of Annie Green and John Roderick in the Police Court a day or two since, was at the police office this morning weeping and wailing at the usage she received from a second-hand dealer on lower Broadway. She claimed to have been struck on the right breast and appeared to suffer a great deal.

TELEGRAPH MINING COMPANY!

ON THE COMSTOCK LODE.

Capital Stock, - - - - - - - - $6,000,000

Divided into Sixty Thousand Shares of One Hundred Dollars Each, Twenty-five Thousand Shares reserved for Working Capita

THE TELEGRAPH MINING COMPANY INCORPORATED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE State of California, April 1st, 1876 has purchased 900 feet of rich gold and silver mining ground on the celebrated Comstock Lode, upon which are located the California, Consolidated Virginia, Ophir, and other well known profitable mines. The mine is situated between the Utah, Orleans and Ward mines, and the rock taken from it yields a high return of gold and silver. The Directors have reserved 25,000 Shares of the Capital Stock of the Company for working purposes, in order to avoid any danger of being compelled to assess the Stock. Ten Thousand Shares of this reserved Stock will be offered at once for subscription at ONE DOLLAR per share. The other 15,000 shares will be disposed of from time to time through the Stock Boards, as occasion may require at the Directors may think most profitable for the working of the mine. As soon as the Ten Thousand Shares now offered are taken, the Stock will be placed upon the Boards of the respective Stock Exchanges and will at once command a figure more than double the price now asked for the original subscriptions. It is confidently believed that this mine, by reason of its location on the Comstock Lode and its close proximity to the Utah will in a short time reach as high a value per share as the last named mine commands, which would be an increase of over twenty five hundred per cent on the price at which the stock is now offered to original subscribers.

The books of the Company will be open for subscription April 10th, at the office of the Company, No. 331 Montgomery street, San Francisco.

The proprietors of the celebrated San Francisco Steam Pump received the GOLD MEDAL for the best Steam Pumps on exhibition at the last Mechanics' Fair in San Francisco. We have made a specialty of Tank Pumps and Boiler-feeders, and challenge comparison with anything in use for simplicity of construction, durability and economy. Specimens of our work can be seen at the following places in Oakland:

J. M. WALKER, Twelfth street, between Jackson and Oak.
MRS. BLAKE, Washington street, between Eleventh and Twelfth.
G. W. HUME, Cemetery road.
H. D. BACON, Oak street.
FASSKING'S PARK, Alameda.

We would also call attention to our newly-invented, direct acting Steam Pump for artesian or other deep wells, with which water can be raised from any required depth, a specimen of which can be seen at the Palace Hotel, where our pump is 100 feet down the artesian bore, and is raising 150,000 gallons per day to the top of the hotel. Another of similar construction, but much smaller, may be seen at the Hammam Baths, in San Francisco. All persons wanting pumps will find it to their advantage to call and see us.

THE INDIANS.

What an Educated Ute Thinks of Their Transfer to the War Department.

Richard D. Komas, a young member of the Ute tribe of Indians, well known at Salt Lake, at present attending the Lincoln University, Pennsylvania, has addressed a letter to the Senate of the United States in opposition to the proposition to place the Indians in charge of the War Department. He says:

As a member of one of these aboriginal occupants of this continent, I am in condition to understand the effects of this proposed change. The interests both of the United States and of the Indians would justify the establishment of a separate Indian Department, having only the Indian matters to attend to. Such a department would soon learn the Indian problem and would save money to the United States and give justice to the Indians. The design of the army is not to civilize and educate but to fight.

The putting of the Indians under the army will be regarded by them as meaning war, and they will be uneasy. Instead of saving money such a course will cost the nation vast sums. As the example of the Modoc war shows. The war was caused by a mistake between the Indians and the army officers. The Modoc war cost the United States Government millions and millions of dollars. How much better would it have been to have spent that money in educating the Modocs. That amount would educate all the Indians. This present bill for placing the Indians under the custody of the War Department will excite the greatest difficulties on the frontier settlements and in the Indian tribes. A great many innocent lives will be wasted by this change, in Indian affairs from a peaceful to a warlike management.

In view of these facts I would respectfully ask of the present Congress and the public men of the country, to consider a plan for providing for education of two selected Indian boys from every Indian reservation in the United States, and educating them in any of the institutes of the Middle or Eastern States. The education which Indians obtain on the reservation or in schools established by the different Christian denominations among the people must necessarily be imperfect, as they speak a language among themselves, entirely different from that which they are taught at the academy. All their associations and the circumstances by which they are surrounded prevent these Indians from making advancement in their learning. If a number of Indian youths could be taken away from their homes, when they should return to their people I believe they would greatly benefit their friends with the knowledge they had received in the schools of the civilized people. The influence of one educated Indian knowing the power of the United States, would be more effectual to restrain the roving tribes than many regiments of soldiers.

Nellie Grant's Silver.

A lady who has spent five years in England told me that when the vast quantity of silver which was presented to Mrs. Sartoris on her marriage reached London it caused quite an excitement there. It was left in London for some little time while packing cases were being made in which much of it was to be stored. It attracted so much attention that crowds used to go each day to see it. It is not customary, I am informed, in England to give silver as a wedding gift, it being usually supposed that all well to do families have enough silver, as heirlooms, to answer every purpose, or have purchased enough themselves for household use, and the question was more than once asked by English people of my informant, "Why was so much silver given her? Did her friends think the family she married into had none?" Those who went to look at the silver were amazed at its quality and style of manufacture. They said that if it had all come from one city of the United States, and that one New York, they would have understood its superior quality and workmanship, but they were greatly surprised to find that it represented manufacturers in all parts of the United States, and all apparently were equally skillful and could compete with the best English silversmiths.—Graphic Correspondence.

REDUCTION IN GAS.

Important to Landlords and Gas Consumers.

SAFETY AND ECONOMY.

OFFICE OAKLAND GASLIGHT CO.,
February 1, 1876.

IN PURSUANCE OF THE POLICY FOLlowed by this Company since its formation; viz. to lower its rates as rapidly as is warranted by the growth of the city, the price of gas will be reduced on the

1st Day of March Next

—TO—

$4 25 PER 1,000 CUBIC FEET.

Considering the value of coal and labor, the limited use of gas, and the distance between the places of consumption,

Oakland will be the most cheaply lighted city in the Union.

This price will leave no valid excuse for the use of any illuminant but Coal Gas, along the lines of the Company's mains, a large part of which are now, and have been since they were laid, unproductive of income.

The advantages to be reaped by the public from Cheap Gas are—

1st—A daily saving in the cost of one of the necessaries of life.

2d—A decrease in the number of destructive fires caused by the use of the volatile distillates of Petroleum.

3d—A saving of human life by substituting stationary lights for brittle lamps.

4th—The most convenient and safest light brought within the means of the most economical household.

However small the house, the economy will be great. If insured, the rate of premium will be lessened, if not insured, the risk of loss will be decreased.

This reduction can only be profitable to the Company, by the accession of a sufficient number of new consumers to compensate for the lessening of its current receipts; and it will become the interest of all consumers of gas, to induce their neighbors to adopt this light, in order that further reductions may be made in the future.

The attention of consumers is also directed to the use of gas for heating and cooking. In Europe and the Eastern cities it has been adopted to a great extent, and its use is constantly extending.

It is to be hoped that this movement will be accepted in the spirit which has inspired it, and which has always characterized the Company, viz.:

That the Interests of Consumers and the Company are Identical.

The Company are constantly advised of all changes in modes of manufacture and distribution, and will at all times avail itself of any real improvements which tend to improve quality and lessen price.
